Dear Dr Shin

The Prime Minister has asked me to thank you for your letter of 29 November inviting him to your concert and press conference on 25 February.

The Prime Minister really appreciated this invitation however, owing to the enormous pressures on his diary; he will sadly be unable to attend. It is with much regret that I must therefore send his apologies, but I know he would want me to wish you a successful event.

Yours sincerely

Dear Dr. Shin,

Thank you for your invitation to Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger for your event in 2011.

As you probably know, Governor Schwarzenegger's final term will end on January 3, 2011 and the next Governor will take office. In order for your request to be considered, you must resend it to the new administration after this date. The address will remain the same for any scheduling requests to the new Governor:
