Dear Dr. Kong-Keun Shin,

Thank you for your letter from January 14th 2011 and the invitation to your press conference. Due to other obligations my attendance will not be possible.

I ask for your understanding that I will not be able to forward your letter and your request for being challenged amongst the academic community of my institution. I ask you as well to use neither my name nor my institution's name with the intention to show an agreement with your theory.

Thank you very much.

Dear Dr Shin

The Office of the Prime Minister of Saint Lucia wishes to acknowledge receipt of your letter of November 29, 2010 informing the Prime Minister of your computer discoveries 'Shin sort', and your invitation to attend the press conference at the Ritz-Carlton Seoul Hotel on February 25, 2011.

The Office of the Prime Minister regrets to inform you of the Hon. Prime Minister's unavailability to attend the press conference.

However the Office takes this opportunity to wish you a very successful press conference and looks forward to further information on the progress of 'Shin sort'.

Best regards

Dear Dr. Shin,

Thank you for your letter dated November 29th, 2010, to Premier Wu Den-yih pertaining to recommendations on how to improve sorting of any computing systems by using your esteemed invention, Shin sort.

We strongly suggest you to directly approach our leading research institutes, such as the Academia Sinica and the National Applied Research Laboratories of Taiwan, as they are likely to have high interests in your findings and may seek your kind advices and potential collaborations in computer science and/or related technologies.

Thank you again for sharing your great discovery with us. We look forward seeing more groundbreaking publications from you in the near future.
