Dear Mr. Doug Kehring,

Thank you for your interest in my sorting method.

Since my laboratory has not been established as a company, I cannot provide you with enough information about high level financials. I have been looking for a company which purchase my programs, and the programs are displayed in my website: www.dkshin.com. My program has not been sold yet, so there has been no customer. All I have for product information have been displayed in my website.

If I can help you further, please let me know.

Dear Dr. Shin:

Thank you for sending me the lovely Christmas card and CD Praise the Lord, O My Soul. I very much appreciate your thoughtfulness and thank you for your generous gesture.

President Barack Obama acknowledges that protecting our environment is an important role of government even in these tough times. To promote citizen engagement, improve public health and increase government accountability on environmental enforcement, I have outlined six international priorities to strengthen the focus of the EPA's work: building strong environmental institutions and legal structures, combating climate change by limiting pollutants, improving air quality, expanding access to clean water, reducing exposure to toxic chemicals and cleaning up e-waste.

Again, thank you for writing and for the CD. I wish you the best in the new year.

Sincerely,

Dear Dr. Shin:

Thank you for taking the time to send me such a very meaningful Christmas card. I deeply appreciate the CD of Christian songs which, as Governor, I accept on behalf of the State of Alabama.

I pray that you and your family will enjoy a healthy, prosperous, and happy 2012.
