Profile

Composer
Dr. Dong-Keun Shin

- 1981-83 Made tune to the poems such as Ga-si-ri, Gu-ri-um, and Song-hwa-gang Bat-no-rae. Ga-si-ri was performed before the public at Cal-International House on a Korean festival.
- 1983 Graduated from UC Berkeley with a degree in computer science.
- 1991 Worked, studied, researched, taught, and achieved a doctoral degree in computer science from George Washington University.
- 1994 As the president of mountain climbing club at Samsung Electronics' Telecommunication Research Center, initiated singing San-e-nun and Do-bong to be sung together with the club members.
- 1998 Discovered the best sorting method when finding a sorting method was a big issue in computer science. The sorting method was named Shin sort. In 1999, let the world's press organizations know about the discovery and my overwhelming victory in the decisive battle after claiming to be the greatest computer scientist in the world in 1997. My papers are open to the public at my Web site at www.dkshin.com to review all my research.
- 2004 Translated Pastor Eric Holzapfel's book, You Were Healed, into Korean. (Published by Tyrannus Press in Korea.)
- 2005 Wrote three gospel songs, such as Praise the Lord, O My Soul, The Sacrifices of God Are a Broken Spirit, and Cast Your Cares on the Lord, and a psalm for the New Testament in two weeks.
- Now Conduct research, write books and papers, and develop S³ DB system as an independent researcher in computer science.
- Profile included in the book 2000 Outstanding Scientists of the 20th Century by the IBC in Cambridge, England.
 - Profile continually included in 2000 Outstanding Scientists of the 21st Century to attract criticism and verification of his computational theories.
 - Invited to International Order of Merit—Member and American Order of Excellence—Founding Member to be positioned in order based on merit.
 - Name and profile included in many books, including Dictionary of International Biography.
 - Received several prizes and numerous nominations from international organizations.
